CIRCULAR

Recently there has been instances wherein personal identity or information of residents along with Aadhaar numbers and demographic information and other sensitive personal data such as bank details etc. collected by Ministries, State Departments for Administrative and various welfare schemes of the Central and State Governments have been published online.

As per the Aadhaar Act 2016, publishing identity information i.e. Aadhaar number alongwith demographic information is an offense punishable with imprisonment upto 3 years.

Also the Government of India has been persistently following up with the State Governments for compliance of the IT Act 2000 and Aadhaar Act 2016.

Henceforth, it is advised that all the State Government Departments, Public Sector Units (PSUs) take all precautions while publishing or sharing data on their websites, ensuring compliance of the IT Act 2000 and Aadhaar Act 2016.

By Order.
